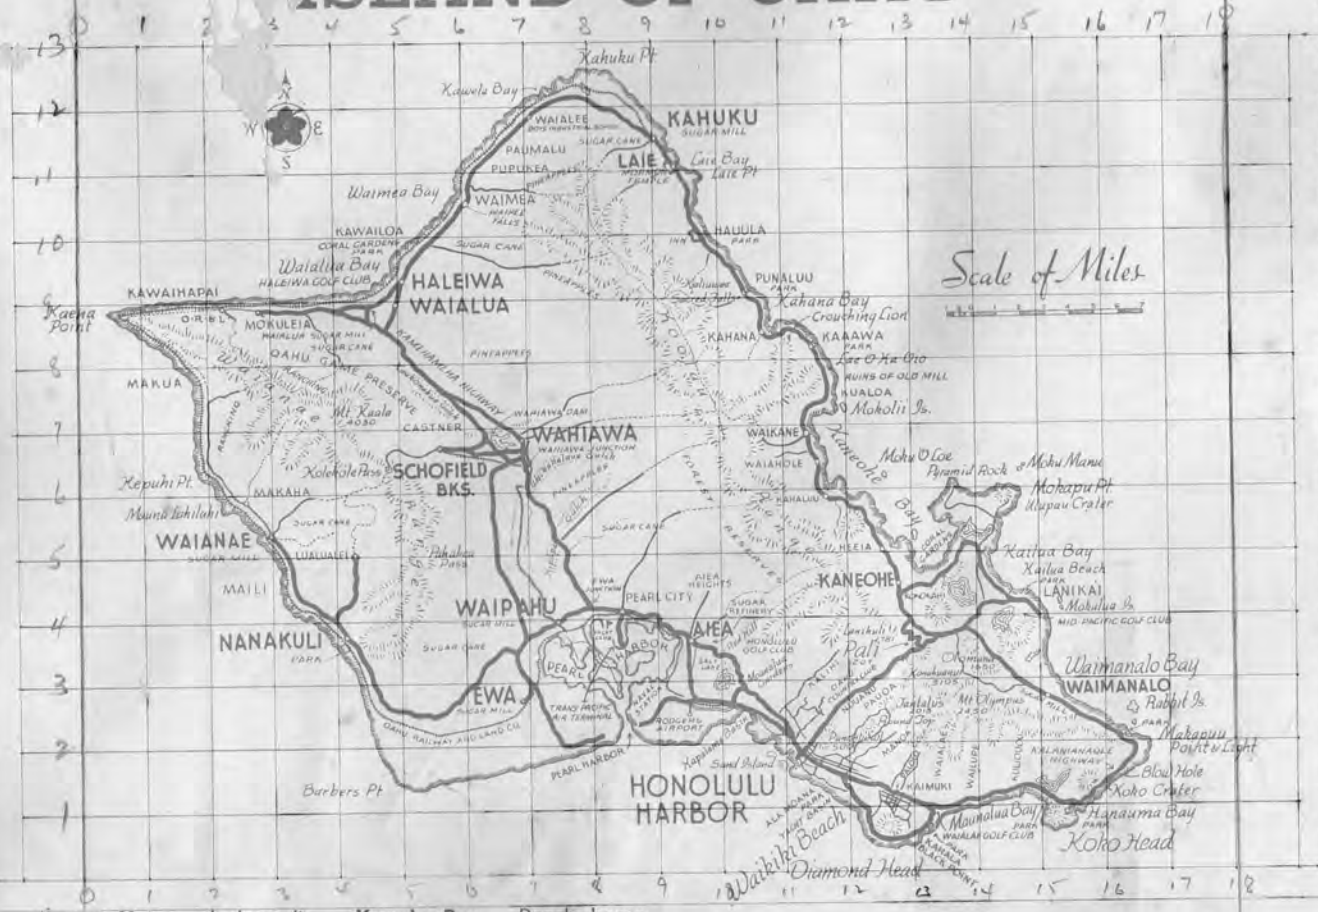
ISLAND OF OAHU



Ancient Heiau—A short distance from the main highway near Kailua is the Ulupo Heiau (or temple) said to have been built by Menehunes.

Ancient Village—Stone remnants of an old Hawaiian fishing village near Waimanalo.

Blow Hole — A novel saltwater geyser on the eastern coast.

Coral Gardens—At Kaneohe and Haleiwa.

Hanauma Bay—Picturesque cove in Koko Head Park, with camping facilities.

Hau Trees — Identified on Pali road.

Hawaiian Village — Showplace and Hawaiiana school. Waikiki district.

Kahana Beach—This beautiful bay was an important fishing center in olden times.

Kailua Beach—Public bathing beach and pavilion.

Kamani Grove—These trees, mentioned in many Hawaiian chants, are found along the highway near Kaaawa.

Kawela Bay — Beach home district in rural Oahu.

Kipapa Gulch — Between Schofield and Honolulu—the scene of a historic battle.

Koko Crater — Rugged extinct crater (1,205 feet high) north of Koko Head.

Koko Head — Scenic landmark point at eastern end of the island.

Kolekole Pass — Large gap in the Waianae mountain range near Schofield.

Lanai Island — Seen from Kalanianaole highway on clear days.

Makapuu Point — Eastern point of the island has Oahu's welcoming lighthouse for ships from North America.

Moanalua Valley — Seen from Schofield road near Moanalua Park.

Stevenson's Banyan — On Tusitala street in Waikiki district. Identified with sojourn of R.L.S.

Tantalus Summit — Marked from Tantalus auto drive.

Legend

MAIN ROADS
SECONDARY ROADS
TRAILS
RAILWAYS

Upside Down Falls — Visible from Pali road.

Waiahole Valley — One of the many beautiful valleys on the windward side of Koolau range.

Waiau Pool — Near Pearl Harbor.

Waikakalaua — Gulch near Schofield.

Waimanalo Beach — At island's eastern end.

Waimea Bay — Beauty spot along north coast highway.

Waimea Valley—Interesting country for the hiker.

Nanakuli Beach — Public beach on west coast.

Old King's Highway — This ancient road, built prior to the arrival of the Missionaries, parallels a section of Kalanianaole highway.

Old Royal Fish Ponds—Near Heeia.

Old Sugar Mill — The ruins of one of Hawaii's early mills (1868), near Kaaawa.

Mt. Olomana — A verdant peak near Waimanalo.

Paeo Fish Pond—Remains of legendary pond near Laie.

Pearl Harbor—West of Honolulu.

Pohaku Hoohanau — "Stone aborning" in the Waialua district. Legend attaches supernatural importance to it.

Pride of India Trees—Rows of these exotically beautiful tall shade trees line the highway near Waialua.

Puhala Grove—Trees identified near Kahana Bay.

Rabbit Island — Volcanic islet off Makapuu point.

Sacred Falls—This beautiful spot is within short hiking distance of the main highway near Hauula.

Hq. & Hq. Battery Eleventh Field Artillery Brig.

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, T. H.

BRIGADE HEADQUARTERS

Brig. General Maxwell Murray, Commanding
Lt. Col. John Keliher, Executive
Lt. Col. Harry W. O. Kinnard, S-1, S-2
Major Charles P. Jones, S-3
Major Floyd R. Brisack, S-4
Major Robert B. Hood, S. D. Recreation Officer
Capt. Ralph R. Mace, Communication Officer
Capt. Robert W. Van de Velde, Aide
Capt. John F. Chalker, Chaplain

HEADQUARTERS BATTERY

Capt. Ralph R. Mace, Commanding
Capt. Robert M. Burnett, Executive
M. Sgt. Arthur O'Leary, Sgt. Major
1st Sgt. Noah Peel, 1st Sgt.
Tech. Sgt. George P. Sampson, Metro. Sgt.
Staff Sgt. Joe L. Farrow, Survey Sgt.
Staff Sgt. Carleton T. Freese, Motor Sgt.

* Sergeants **********

William C. Brennan
Melvin H. Cain
Clarence D. Giambruno
Buford Metcalf
William F. Robinson
Sam Tomasetti

* Corporals **********

James M. Cuthrell
Rufus Estes
Delbert Grainger
Claude T. Graves
Roy B. Marshall
Buren Metcalf
Stephen J. Ori
Homer G. Snodgrass
Lloyd E. Turner

 Privates First Class *****

Howard A. Ashwood
Frank E. Babula
Ralph E. Barnes
Floyd W. Beam
George G. Blanchard
George G. Burgoon
Victor J. Carlson, Jr.
Andrew Carol
Charles O. Clements
Ezra L. Davis
James H. Erb
Alexander E. Glaves
Carrol Halcomb
Tremayne Hornbeck
Robert G. Hudgens
Clifton B. Huff
Eugent M. Lawing
Rabon L. Martindale
Lewis M. McKey
Odren Patton
Charles M. Riley, Jr.
Wilby T. Shumway
John M. Smith
Charles M. Spurling
Joseph F. Surina
Edward Vetrovec
Frank G. White

* Privates **********

William C. Anderson
Oscar O. Baker
Ira L. Belcher
Paul Bowman
Hebert W. Clark
Emlin W. Cunningham
Elisha Davis
Donald J. Fererro
John R. Ferguson
Darrel D. Gordon
Charles C. Hays
Alton B. Hoffman
George K. Hollingworth
Stephen K. Karnish
James F. Key
Leonard C. Kopplin
Walter P. Mackerowski
William E. Manis
Robert McFarland
Albert McGovern
Stallard I. McNalley
Lindsey L. Moore, Jr.
Edward Murphy
Willard D. O'Berry
John S. Prisiarski
Stacy H. Rash
Richard M. Ratliff
James F. Russell
Walter H. Schulte
Don C. Scivally
Fay M. Shroyer
Napoleon P. St. Laurent
Harry F. Swenk
Milton L. Thompson
James P. Tiner
Francis Villa
John J. Walsh
Kenneth M. Witham

ISLAND OF MAUI

Avocado Orchard — Near Haiku.

Bamboo Forest — On scenic auto drive near Keanae.

Cattle Country — District surrounding Ulupalakua in southern part of island.

Cinder Cone—Near old lava flows at southern part of island.

Country Club—Near Spreckelsville.

Ditch Trail—Horseback trip cutting inland from scenic drive.

Haleakala — House of the Sun.

Hamoa Village — South of Hana at eastern end of island.

Hawaii Island—Visible from southern part of Maui.

Iao Valley—Hawaii's "Yosemite."

Kaanapali Battlefield—Historic site. Northwestern coast.

Kahakuloa Village—Hawaiian settlement on northern coast.

Kahekili's Leap — Legend says a Hawaiian by that name used to jump off this 300-feet cliff every morning before breakfast!

Kahoolawe Island — Visible from Amalfi Drive.

Kauwiki Hill — Ancient stronghold of Hawaiian chieftains in the Hana district.

Keanae Church — Hawaiian church in a picturesque setting.

Kepaniwai — "Blocked Stream." In 1790 when Kamehameha crushed Maui forces, the slaughter was so great that bodies dammed Iao Stream.

Kipahulu Waterfall—Beauty spot in Hana district.

Koolau Gap — Northern opening of Haleakala crater.

Kula Pipe Line—Water supply project in Kula district.

Lahainaluna School — Founded in 1831. In back of Lahaina.

Lanai Island — The "pineapple island" can be seen from Amalfi Drive.

Largest Banyan—Largest in Islands. At Lahaina.

La Parouse Bay—On southern coast. Named for early French explorer.

Last Lava Flow — Southern coast. More than 250 years old.

Maalaea Airport—Near Kihei. Passenger plane terminal.

Maliko Gulch—Runs to the sea through Hamakuapoko.

Malo's Tomb—Burial place in back of Lahainaluna of David Malo, Hawaiian scholar and patriot.

Molokai Island — Visible from West Maui coast.

Molokini Light — Visible from drive to southern part of Maui.

Molokini Islet—Visible from roadway near Makena.

Municipal Golf Links — At Waiehu.

Needle of Iao — Verdant peak in Hawaii's "Yosemite."

Old Lava Flows—To the sea along southern coast.

Old Prison—At Lahaina.

Polo Field — Take Pukalani Road.

Road of Kihapiilani—Ruins of ancient paved road.

Royal Tombs — Of Queen Keopuolani and King Kaumualii and other chiefs in the Lahaina Cemetery.

Rubber Trees—Near Hana.

Ukumehame Canyon — Mouth of canyon is along Amalfi Drive near Olowalu.

Waianapanapa — Tropical Valley in Hana district.

Waihee Valley — North of Wailuku.

Waikapu Valley—Seen from road south of Wailuku.

Wailua Falls — Northern coast. On scenic drive.