THE TWENTY-SEVENTH INFANTRY

The Twenty Seventh Infantry was organized in 1901. The 2nd and 3rd Battalions at Plattsburg Barracks, N. Y. and the 1st Battalion at Fort McPherson, Ga.

The Regiment, commanded by Colonel Frank D. Baldwin arrived in Manila, P. I. in 1902 and served with distinction in the Lake Lanao Expedition, at Fort Gadungan, Pualas, Binidayan and Pandapatan. Its greatest achievement perhaps was the capture of the latter -- stronghold of the Sultan of Bayan. This battle was victoriously fought on May 2nd and 3rd, 1902, one year after the official birthday of the Regiment.

President Theodore Roosevelt complimented the Regiment in a cablegram to General Chaffee in the following words:

"Accept for the army under your command and express to General Davis and Colonel Baldwin especially my congratulations and thanks for the splendid courage and fidelity which has again carried our flag to victory.

Your fellow countrymen at home will ever reverence the memory of the fallen, and be faithfull to the survivors, who have been faithful unto death for their country's sake.

Theodore Roosevelt"

The Regiment served at Fort Sheridan, Illinois, 1904-1907 and 1909-1913; in Cuba 1907-1909, on the Texas Border 1913-1915; in Panama 1915-1916 and on March 4, 1916 arrived in Manila, P.I. for a second tour of duty, where it remained until August, 1918 when it departed for Siberia as a part of the American Expedition in Siberia. There the Regiment continued to live up to its former reputation for soldierly qualities.

The Wolfhounds still maintain their leadership not only in the strictly soldierly virtues but in the field of sports as is witnessed by its athletic laurels.
