ARMS: Shield sanguine, a maltese cross argent.
CREST: On a wreath sanguine and argent a demi sun or.
MOTTO: "Curare."
DESCRIPTION: The field of the arms is sanguine, the nearest heraldic equivalent to the Medical Department maroon. The maltese cross is symbolic of the emblem of the Knights Hospitalers, organized in 1113 at Jerusalem, the earliest military-medical unit of which there is any record. The crest is the setting sun, to symbolize Hawaii, near the extreme west of the earth. The literal meaning of the motto is "To take care of." The regimental insignia is the crest within a ribbon scroll sanguine bearing the motto "Curare" argent.
