

Pōhakuloa Training Area

Programmatic Environmental Impact Statement (PEIS) Public Hearing

SCOPING CONCERNS AND THE NEPA PROCESS

The Army considered the public's concerns provided during the December 2010 through February 2011 Scoping Period.

More information on the public's concerns is found in the EIS sections listed below.

Concerns	EIS Chapter
Impacts on wildlife and listed species	4.9 Biological Resources: Environmental Consequences
Survey of caverns located in the range area	3.10.4.2 Cultural Resources: Identifying and managing resources at PTA through surveys
Depleted Uranium (DU), radiation and dust control	3.12 Depleted Uranium: Affected Environment and 4.12 Depleted Uranium: Environmental Consequences
Noise impacts on wildlife, National Park visitors, and historical landmarks	4.5.4.1 Noise: General Range Area
High Altitude Mountainous Environment Training (HAMET) – helicopter training	5.0 Cumulative Impacts
Native Hawaiian Sovereignty	3.10.3.3 Cultural Resources: Native Hawaiian Sovereignty
Impacts on cultural and archaeological sites	4.10 Cultural Resources: Environmental Consequences
Hunting at PTA	3.1.2.1 Land Use: Recreation
Munitions of Environmental Concern (MEC)/ Unexploded Ordnance (UXO) Cleanup	3.11.1.1 Hazardous Materials/Hazardous Waste: Regulations (MEC/UXO)
Cumulative Impacts considering All Military Activities at PTA	5.0 Cumulative Impacts

