FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Noise/Convoy Advisory for Schofield Barracks

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Hawaii – Residents in the vicinity of Schofield Barracks, North Shore and Kahuku areas may experience periodic noise increases from February 25th thru March 1st as a result of artillery simulators and blank firing during field training exercises in the area. Training will resume on the 3rd and continue on until the 5th of March. Training will start promptly at 6 am and continue on until 10 pm daily.

Residents in the vicinity of Schofield Barracks and the North Shore area will see an increase in traffic along the Kaukonahua Road and Farrington Highways on the 23rd of February due to military convoys consisting of various types of vehicles. Convoys will have no more than 10 vehicles and will be dispersed by half hour increments.

Also on the March 6th, convoys will be returning back to Schofield Barracks using Farrington Highway and Kaukonahua Road. Convoys will have no more than 10 vehicles and will be dispersed by half hour increments

The U.S. Army will be conducting aerial operations as part of a military training exercise in the vicinity of Schofield Barracks, North Shore and the Kahuku areas from February 24th thru March 6th. Training flights will be primarily conducted during daylight hours and concluding during the evening time.

Please note dates and times are subject to change and are dependent on environmental factors and training completion.

The Army in Hawaii appreciates the community's understanding and continued support of local Soldiers and their families. While sometimes loud, the sounds of these weapons represent how the Army ensures our nation's Soldiers are ready to accomplish the mission.

For questions specific to this exercise, please call the 25th Infantry Division Public Affairs office at (808)655-6354. To report concerns related to noise, please call the U.S. Army Garrison-Hawaii (USAG-HI) Noise Concern Line at 656-34873487 or email usaghi.pao.comrel@us.army.mil. The USAG-HI Public Affairs Office will contact you about your concern during regular business hours, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m.-4 p.m.
