PTA to open several areas for bow hunting this weekend

POHAKULOA TRAINING AREA, Hawaii—Army officials are opening several training areas for bow hunting, here, May 11-12 from 5 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Training Areas 1-4 and 9-15 will be open for bow hunting of rams and billy and nanny goats, only. Hunters are limited to one ram and one goat per person, per day in keeping with state bag limits.

All hunters must check in and check out at one of the following hunter's check-in stations: Kilohana, located on Saddle Road between mile markers 43 and 44; or Huluhulu, located at the intersection of Mauna Kea Access Road and Saddle Road near mile marker 28. Check out time is no later than 7:30 p.m. each day.

Hunting passes will be provided at the check-in stations beginning Friday after 5 p.m. These passes must be signed and placed on the vehicle's dashboard. Hunters who do not have a signed hunting pass on their dashboard will be barred from hunting for 30 days.

Hunters must enter and exit the hunting areas through one of the following gates: Gates 1-10 on East Saddle Road, or Ahi Road Gate on West Saddle Road. No early access to hunting areas is permitted, and shooting sheep with blue collars is not permitted.

Firearms, alcoholic beverages, all-terrain vehicles, dirt bikes and/or recreational vehicles are not allowed in the training and hunting areas.

For more information, call the PTA Hunter's Hotline at (808) 969-3474, visit www.garrison.hawaii.army.mil/pta and click on the "Hunting" tab, or refer to instructions on the hunting pass.
