

Source: CEMML 2002, USGS 1992a, 1998a,b,c, and 1999a

The Helemanō Trail consists of acquiring approximately 17 acres of land in a perpetual easement and construct a 15-foot-wide gravel road with 3-foot-wide gravel shoulders on both sides that would provide military vehicle access between SBMR and HMR.

Legend

- Helemanō Military Reservation Base Boundary
- Schofield Barracks Main Post Boundary
- State Land Use District Boundary
- K3/K4 Helemanō Trail
- Drum Road
- Existing Road (Pa'ala'a Uka Pupukea)
- Existing Military Access Road

Helemanō Trail

O'ahu, Hawai'i

Figure D-16