

Tropic Lightning Museum

Our mission is to collect, preserve, interpret, and exhibit the artifacts and related memorabilia which reflect the history of Schofield Barracks, 25th Infantry Division from 1941 to the present, and Wheeler Army Airfield.

The Tropic Lightning Museum is authorized and certified by the U.S. Army Center of Military History, operated by the U.S. Army Garrison, Hawaii.

Hours of Operation:

10:00am-4:00pm

Tuesday-Saturday

Closed Sunday, Monday, and Federal Holidays.

Admission Free General Public Welcome

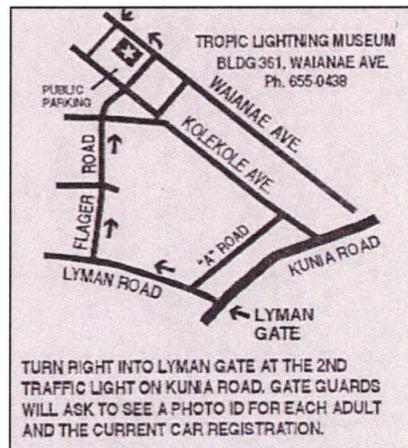

Located:

On Schofield Barracks at Carter Hall, building #361 on the corner of Waianae Ave. and Flagler Rd.

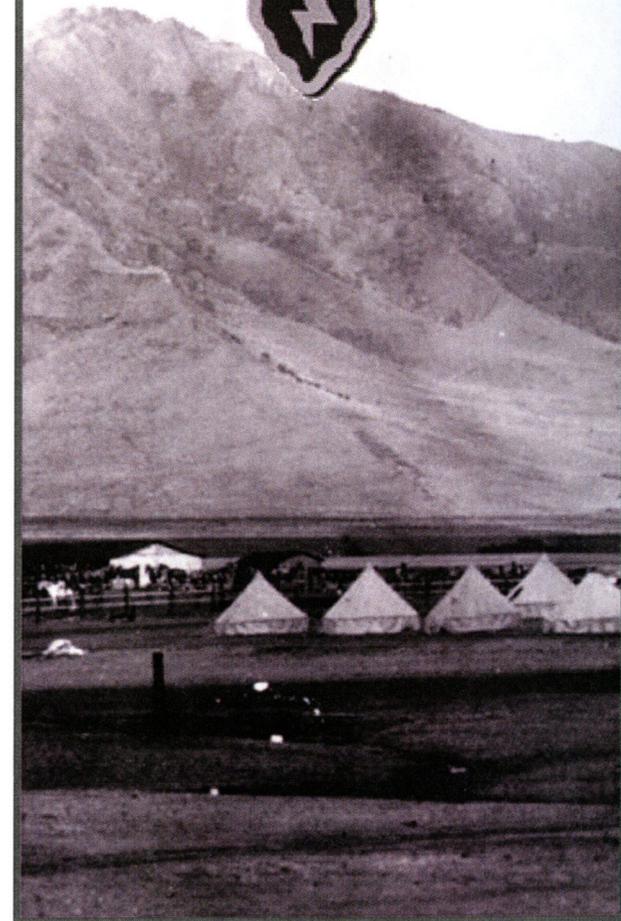

Driving Directions:

From H-2/Wilikina turn left onto Kunia Road. Pass Foote Gate. Turn right into Lyman Gate. From Lyman Road take the 2nd right onto Flagler Road. Follow Flagler Road to the end where it intersects Waianae Ave. Turn left, take another immediate left, parking is located on left.

Museum Phone: (808) 655-0438

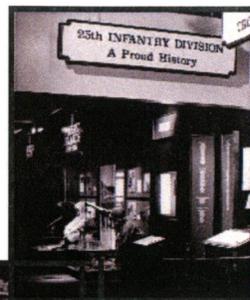

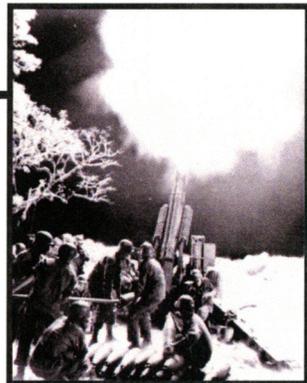

Tropic Lightning Museum

25th Infantry Division Combat History

Formed out of the Hawaiian Division's reorganization in 1941, the 25th Infantry Division has proudly served over six decades. Follow the 25th Infantry Division throughout the Pacific. Experience the battles waged and won by our brave soldiers in combat through WWII, Korea, Vietnam, and more.

Administrative Offices

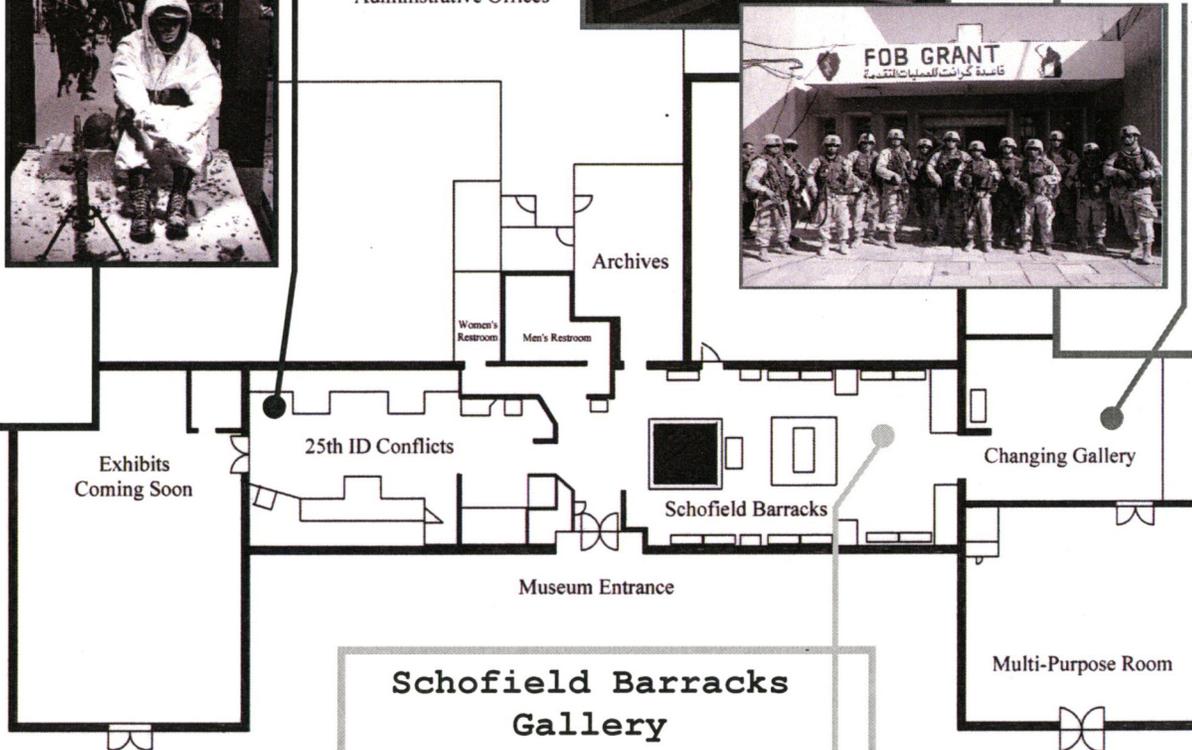

Changing Gallery: 25th Infantry Division's Global War on Terror

Discover what the 25th Infantry soldiers are doing today. The strides that they are making toward democracy and peace, as well as the sacrifice made by our honored soldiers.

Ready to Strike!

Schofield Barracks Gallery

Explore the history of early Schofield Barracks beginning with the initial days when it was settled in 1909 with its grim conditions and the obstacles the U.S. Army had to overcome as it settled in the plains of central Oahu.

