
Source: CEMML 2002, USGS 1992a, 1998a,b,c, and 1999a

R:\New\J397\GIS\Layouts\helemano trail.mxd - YE - 04/09/2003

The Helamanō Trail consists of acquiring approximately 17 acres of land in a perpetual easement and constructing a 15-foot-wide gravel road with 3-foot-wide gravel shoulders on both sides that would provide military vehicle access between Schofield Barracks Military Reservation and Helamanō Military Reservation.

Legend

- Helemanō Military Reservation Base Boundary
- Schofield Barracks Main Post Boundary
- State Land Use District Boundary
- K3/K4 Helemanō Trail
- Drum Road
- Existing Road (Pa'ala'a Uka Pūpūkea)
- Existing Military Access Road

Helemanō Trail

O'ahu, Hawai'i

Figure D-21